Things to note:

- If Bride's parents' names are on top then Bride's name should come before groom's name.
- You can also order enough for the bride's guest list to receive invitations with her parents' name and hers on top and then for the groom's list with his parents' name and his on top.
- Please check on the size of your invite to ensure that everything is legible
- Do NOT use more than 3 fonts on an invitation
- Do not mix the formality of the second of August two thousand and twenty-five with the informality of 3 pm
- Best Compliments if they will be added should be on another part of the invite - the details insert
